

Form L1 - Checklist

Application to evict a tenant for non-payment of rent and to collect rent the tenant owes

Before you file the attached application with the Landlord and Tenant Board, make sure you can answer YES to each of the following questions. If not, your application to the Board may be dismissed, which means you may have to start over.

Are you applying after the termination date on the N4 notice?

You cannot file this application until the day after the termination date in the Notice to End a Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (Form N4).

Have you included a copy of the N4 notice and a Certificate of Service for that notice with your application?

You must include a copy of these two documents when you file your application; if you do not, your application will not be accepted. Be sure to keep copies of these documents for your records.

Did you name each tenant that lives in the rental unit?

The tenant or tenants that you name in this application should be the same people you named on the N4 notice of termination that you served.

Did you fill in the complete address of the rental unit?

Be sure that you have provided the full address - including the correct unit number and postal code.

Did you check your math?

Make sure you've correctly calculated the total amounts owing in the two tables in Part 4 (Rent Owing and NSF Cheque Charges). Check the calculation across the rows of each table and then check the total columns.

Also check to be sure that the amount in the box on page 1 matches the total amount owing in Part 5.

Did you date and sign the application on page 6?

If your application is not signed and dated, the Board will not accept it.

Information for the Tenant from the Landlord

I am applying to the Landlord and Tenant Board for an order:

- to evict you because you owe rent, and
- to collect the money you owe me.

I believe that you owe me a total of $, . as of / /
dd mm yyyy

This amount includes the filing fee for this application ($170.00). You may also owe me any new rent that comes due after I file this application. To see how I arrived at this amount, go to page 4.

Information for the Tenant from the Landlord and Tenant Board

IF YOU AGREE with the amount the landlord claims you owe:

If you agree with the amount the landlord claims you owe, you can do one of the following. But read all three options before you decide. You may want to get legal advice first.

Pay everything you owe

If you pay all the rent you owe plus the landlord's filing fee before the Board issues an order about this application, the landlord will not be able to evict you for not paying the rent. The Board usually issues an order after holding a hearing. For information about the hearing, see the attached Notice of Hearing.

The amount you have to pay includes:

- the amount of rent the landlord is claiming in this application (go to Part 4, Section 1 on page 4), plus
- any new rent that has come due after the application was filed, plus
- the landlord's $170.00 filing fee.

You can pay these amounts to the landlord directly, or to the Board in trust. If you pay everything to the landlord, be sure to get a receipt.

Once you have paid everything, you should contact the Board to make sure the hearing has been cancelled. If it has not been cancelled, you will need to go to the hearing.

Work out a payment plan

If you cannot pay everything you owe right now, you can contact your landlord to see if they are willing to work out a payment plan.

If you and the landlord reach an agreement, you or your landlord can file a copy of your written agreement with the Board. The Board can issue a consent order based on the payment plan you have agreed to. If the Board issues a consent order, you will not have to attend the hearing.

If you and the landlord cannot reach an agreement, you will need to go to the hearing.

The Landlord and Tenant Board collects the personal information requested on this form under section 185 of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006. This information will be used to determine applications under this Act. After an application is filed, all information may become available to the public. Any questions about this collection may be directed to a Customer Service Representative at 416-645-8080 or toll-free at 1-888-332-3234.

Go to the hearing

The date, time and location of the hearing are shown on the Notice of Hearing that is attached to this application.

At the hearing, you can explain why you think you should not be evicted and you can ask the Board for more time to pay the money you owe. You will also be able to raise other issues such as maintenance problems or harassment. It is important that you bring evidence to support your case.

If you would like to resolve this application by mediation instead of the formal hearing process, in most cases you can speak to a Board mediator on the day of your hearing.

After the hearing the Board will make a decision and issue an order that will be sent to you by mail. The order will tell you what you have to pay. You should read the order to be sure it is correct and that you understand it.

IF YOU DO NOT AGREE with the amount the landlord claims you owe:

If you do not agree with the amount your landlord claims you owe, you can talk to your landlord to see if both of you can agree on a different amount. You may want to get legal advice.

If you and your landlord agree on a different amount

If you and your landlord can reach an agreement about the amount you owe, read the options above called Pay everything you owe, Work out a payment plan and Go to the hearing. You can follow one of those options, but use the different amount you and your landlord have agreed on.

If you and your landlord cannot agree on a different amount

You will need to go to the hearing. The date, time and location of the hearing are shown on the attached Notice of Hearing.

At the hearing, you can explain why you disagree with the amount the landlord claims you owe and why you think you should not be evicted. If the Board decides that you owe money, you can ask for more time to pay it. You will also be able to raise other issues such as maintenance problems or harassment. It is important that you bring evidence to support your case.

If you would like to resolve this application by mediation instead of the formal hearing process, in most cases you can speak to a Board mediator on the day of your hearing.

After the hearing the Board will make a decision and issue an order that will be sent to you by mail. The order will tell you what you have to pay. You should read the order to be sure it is correct and that you understand it.
